Emergency Response Team

energy API

AOPL®
Association of Oil Pipe Lines
Protecting Communities & the Environment
Pipelines Deliver Energy to:

Drive Our Cars  Travel  Heat Our Homes
Pipelines Supply American Workers:
Pipelines Have a Role in Our Communities
Pipeline Operators Need to:

- Be Prepared for Emergencies
- Respond to Incidents
- Promote Awareness
- Help First Responders
API & AOPL Launched the Emergency Response Team in 2012
Mission of the API-AOPL Emergency Response Team

Improve Operator & First Responder Pipeline Emergency Capabilities
Pipeline Operators Are Listening to First Responders

Emergency Response Advisory Board

Annual Pipeline Emergency Response Forum
Operators Are Reaching Out to First Responders

Materials, Training Standards, Conferences
Operators Are Improving their Emergency Response Capabilities
API 1174
Industry-Wide Recommended Practice on Emergency Response & Planning
API 1174 Planning & Resource Guidelines

- Facility Descriptions
- Risk Assessments
- Resource Management
- Outreach Programs
- Response Plans
- WCD/Risk Analysis
- Training
- Notification Preparedness
API 1174 Response Guidelines

- Activation
- Environmental Protection
- Community Safety
- Incident Management
- Response Transition
- Monitoring & Measurement
- Communications
- Evaluation & Improvement
Operators Are Assisting First Responders with Training Resources
Free On-Line Training
Pipeline Emergency Response
Listening

Reaching Out

Assisting

Improving
Emergency Response Team
energy
AOPL®
Association of Oil Pipe Lines